

Speaking – Instructions

- The total time for the speaking will be 11-14 minutes.
- There are 3 parts.
- In Part 1, the candidate and examiner introduce themselves. Candidates then answer general questions. This part lasts between 4 and 5 minutes.
- In Part 2, the candidate is given a task card with prompts and is asked to talk about a particular topic. The candidate has one minute to prepare, and they can make some notes if they wish, before speaking for between 1 and 2 minutes.
- In Part 3, the examiner and candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues that are thematically linked to the topic in Part 2. This part lasts between 4 and 5 minutes.

Speaking Part 1 – Introduction and Interview

The examiner will start by introducing him/ herself and checking your identity. He or she will then ask you some questions about yourself.

Let's talk about mobile/cell phones.

- When did you get your first mobile/cell phone?
- What do you use it for most often?
- How often do you change your mobile/cell phone?
- Do you think you could live without a mobile/cell phone?

Let's talk about concentrating.

- When do you need to concentrate most?
- What do you do to help you concentrate?
- Do you ever find it difficult to concentrate?
- Did you find it easier or harder to concentrate when you were younger?

Speaking Part 2 – Individual long turn

Candidate Task Card

You will have to talk about the topic for 1 to 2 minutes

You have one minute to think about what you're going to say

You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Describe a person you know who has an interesting job.

You should say:

- who the person is
- what job the person does
- what skills he or she needs to do this job
- And explain why you think this person's job is interesting.

Rounding-off questions

- Have you told other people about this person?
- Do you think you would be good at this person's job?

Speaking Part 3 – Two-way discussion

We've been talking about a person you know who has an interesting job. I'd like to discuss with you one or two more general questions relating to this. First, let's consider choosing a job.

- Who can best advise young people about jobs, parents or teachers? Why?
- What is the most important thing to consider when choosing a job?

Let's talk about different ways of working now.

- Is it better to work for a small company or a large international company? Why?
- What are the advantages and disadvantages of working from home?

Finally, let's talk about having a successful career.

- Many people say that learning from mistakes is the key to a successful career. Do you agree with this view?
- How easy is it for people who want a successful career to balance their work and personal life?
